

HYBRID MAJESTY

STORY

"Please follow me miss Melinda" The grinding sound of the heavy Lyran body echoed from the stony walls, as the enlightened moved around a corner. Melinda was excited. For years, she had waited for that moment. It had been a really tough job to earn the trust of the Lyran tribe in the first place, but over the past years, Melinda had learned everything about their history, architecture and culture.

"Please, miss... The queens are waiting..." The enlightened seemed to be in a hurry, her long purple hair was almost flying, as she slithered over the ground. Melinda had problems to keep up the pace, so she started to run a bit.

Even though Melinda had learned a lot about the Lyrans, the biggest secrets of the tribe were still kept by their serpentine queens, which rarely gave any audiences.

"Alright, we are there miss" The enlightened stopped in front of a massive gate. Melinda smiled, as she saw she was hissing and quite exhausted. "Thank you Clizz. The queens are in there?"

The enlightened leaned against the cold wall, obviously still exhausted. "hh... yes miss... are you really sure about this?" She stopped before she looked down on Melinda a little worried "There is no turning back once you go in there..."

Melinda grinned "Clizz, you know me for how long now? Haha, this hive is more home to me than any other Merran city. I came here to learn about your kind, and I want to make sure the other people out there understand us better. There are even regions that think we were nothing but wild monsters! It's my task to correct them, and if I need to become one of you to do so, I am very happy to do so.

Clizz still looked a bit worried, but nodded "okay miss, please be safe, okay... the queens can be a bit.. moody at times..."

With a creaking noise, the wooden gates of the den opened and Melinda walked inside. It was nice and cold in here, and a dim light was glowing through a few tiny windows in the ceiling.

"Helloooo?" Melinda walked a little more carefully now, the worst she could do now was waking up a sleeping queen and enrage her.

A long hissing sound came out of a corner, Melinda saw a queen leaning against a wall, obviously in some kind of trance. The massive cobra head of the majestic snake tethered back and forth, as her hand carefully rubbed over the massive bulge at her front.

"Symbiote-snakes" Melinda whispered, as she saw the nethers of the queen swelling up, giving birth to a fleshy snake, that dropped to the ground with a splat "thats so awesome"

"You musst be... Miss Melinda.." A deep feminine voice hissed out of the darkness. Melinda stopped instantly and tried to look at the queen in front of her. A massive, brown body slowly curled out of the shadows. The upper torso of a scaled woman on a massive cobra-body slithered out of the dark. Two massive, scaled breasts dangled from the creatures chest, instead of a human head, the feral head of a hooded cobra looked down on Melinda with glowing, yellow eyes.

"Hweee, have heard a lot from you, missss Melinda Bennignton...."Melinda tried to act cool, as the massive snake came closer "You majesty, I want to join your tribe for the sake of all lyrans. My status as a Tinoran historian could guarantee a lasting peace between this hive and the Tinoran inquisition, which still sees you as a thread that needs to be destroyed"

The Queen wheezed. "Thisss inquisition knows no peace... they killed many of my children... But if you speak the truth, it would be a good opportunity to finally live in peace out here..." The Queen now curled even closer around Melinda "You deserve being a Lyran, yess... still!..." -Melinda had already started to undress to join the ceremony- "Still, You should not be one of us." Melinda's heart dropped for a second- what was the queen saying? "I will make you my personal assistant, a hybrid queen if you will" The giant snake hissed. "You know, The vision of a queen" She pointed at her yellow eye "Is not the best to write letterssss or bookssss" Her cobra head came closer to Melinda's face "We can see pumping blood and fassst movement far better than lifeless paperssss."

"Yes my Queen" Melinda felt relieved, Lets start then! "The queen nodded and curled around the now naked female. Melinda felt her body being lifted upwards by the strong arms of the queen. Below her feet, she saw the scaled belly of the massive cobra. Finally, her head was next to the cobra head of the queen. "Can you do me a favor please?" the queen hissed, as her long forked tongue flickered out of her maw. "whatever you want your majesty" Melinda answered, her feet already slipped between the wet-growing folds of the queen's swollen cunt. "Hhh.. Can you struggle and wiggle a bit please? This always gets me off"

Melinda felt her legs being grabbed and pushed together, as her feet were pushed inside the slimy opening. In seconds, both of her legs had been swallowed by the wet fold of the scaled pussy "ught.. this feels... tight..." Melinda felt her pelvis slowly sinking inside the massive vagina, the queen already hissed in ecstasy.

With a farting noise, Melinda slipped deeper inside the massive cunt. The strong hand of the queen grabbed her shoulder and forced her deeper and deeper into her slimy womanhood. Like if she tried to fit into a sleeping bag that was too tight, Melinda wiggled around and slipped deeper a few inches each time she moved. Even if she wanted to escape now, there was no way she would be able to pull herself out of the vacuum of that pussy.

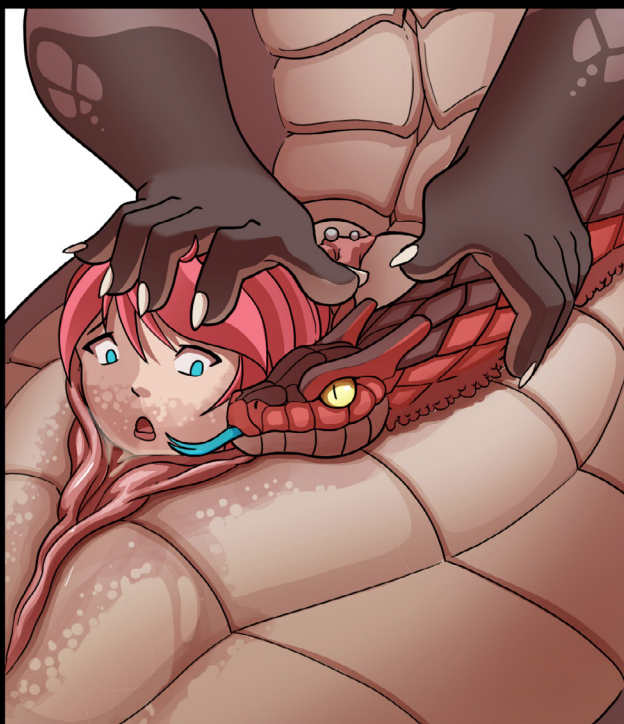

The left lips of the obscenely big genital came closer and closer every second and soon, Melindas shoulder slipped inside the wet birth-canal.

She felt her head being grabbed, as the queen leaned back a bit to picked something up "No worriesss Hhh..." The Queen hissed exhausted. "Thiss snake iss only to connect uss" Melinda smelled the juices of the giant snake cunt below her, as she was pushed deeper by the queens hand. Slimy juices entered her mouth and nostrils, as the lower half of her head disappeared inside the lewd vagina.

Suddenly, a thick fleshy snake came closer to the queens cunt. "you *caught* you gonna use a symbiont?!" Before Melinda got an answer, the fleshy snake already slipped inside the tight opening of the queens cunt. "This... this feels weird..." Melinda tried to say, but her mouth was already filled with the lewd liquids of the queens pussy. With a last breath of fresh air, Melindas body was pushed down the tight birth-canal, deep into the vagina of the massive snake.

It was warm and soft inside the queen. Carefully, Melinda tried to open her eyes. Even if her eyes were not able to see in the darkness, she felt weird glances producing a smelly slime, that was tickling on her skin. The snake that had been pushed inside with her was crawling down Melinda's body, its wet scales slipped over her bare breasts, as it made its way further down. A little bit worried, Melinda tried to move a bit "I hope this damn snake is not going to... OW!"

She felt a stinging pain around her navel. The snake had obviously bitten her! "stupid thing I--- oh damn, what's that feeling?!" Just where Melinda had felt the bite seconds ago, feeling of warmth was spreading. Almost if something was pumped inside her navel... something that made her body feel stronger somehow...

"Wow... thatsss" Melinda noticed the forked tongue that darted out of her mouth "Quite effective...."

She felt soft scales as her hands carefully stroke her belly. Her vision faded, as she was suddenly able to see in the darkness around her. Her tits had grown bigger and whatever was left of the snake had turned into a weird cord that was now connecting her directly to the queen. "Fascinating"

Her legs had turned numb, but in her nethers Melinda suddenly felt a massive pleasure building up. Unable to see past her massive, scaled tits, she moved her hands down to her crotch. Her pussy felt swollen, bloated and almost doubled in size. A moan escaped her throat, as her fingers slipped along her new, massive labia.

Her cunt was aching to be touched, so Melinda used both her hands to pleasure her new, massive slit.

She felt her jaw shifting, as her something weird happened to her mouth: Her tongue had disappeared into a tight sheath, while a new, tight glottis grew out of her lower jaw, creating a hissing sound.

Melinda's head felt heavy, while something grew out to the left and right of her skull and just as she felt the pleasure of her new cunt taking over her, Melinda felt her whole face transforming into a reptilian snout. Exhausted, she hissed and let go of her new, massive sex, before she slipped away into unconsciousness.

Melinda didnt know for how long she had been inside the queen as she woke up. The walls around her felt tight and kinda trying to push her out, the cord that had connected her with the queen had disappeared. Still feeling weak, Melinda tried to use her arms to crawl upwards and soon, she saw a tight slit above her. With all of her remaining strength, Melinda drilled her new, reptilic snout into the tight opening... she needed fresh air, and she needed it now!

With a wet splat, Melinda slapped onto the cold floor. A warm liquid ran over her back, as the queen hissed loudly from her climax of giving birth. Melinda was coated in lewd vaginal slime, as she tried to pull out the rest of her body from her mother-queens tight cunt.

Her soft human skin had been replaced with thick, purple scales, her legs had turned into the massive body of a cobra. Curious, Melinda looked down on herself and took a closer look on her new, quite impressive equipment. Her former human pussy had turned into a giant, lewd slit, which prominently dominated her lower body now. With every movement Melinda made, her cunt seemed to either smack or left out a wet fart, causing some of her liquids to run down over her new scales.

The exhausted queen smiled and leaned back "Don't worry... thisss will stop.... but make sure to cover it, before you go out... These workers cant fulfill their tasks with a sexy thing like you around!"

Melindas head felt heavy: The last thing she wanted to to now was going out. Exhausted, she curled up in a quiet corned and closed her eyes "I will... remind that... my majessty..." she hissed, before she slept in.
