

SECRET IN THE ATTIC

STORY

"Woah, never knew uncle Steve had so much stuff up here!" Noah carefully climbed up the narrow ladder that leaded up into an abandoned attic. Noah had always loved the stories of his uncles adventures as a kid, but he would never had guessed even half of them were actually true!

"Woow! The whole attic was stuffed with boxes, chests and all kinds of fancy objects, even an old armor was standing in the corner, close to the window.

"This is some rare stuff for sure..." He carefully moved forwards, until a small black casket caught his interest. For some reason, it was standing in the middle of a free space and not a single bit of dust had gathered on top of it.

"Thats strange" Noah bended forwards and opened the small cover of the casket. "looks like... some kind of coin?" Curious about the material, Noah picked it up to take a closer look.

"Who do we have here?" A female voice suddenly asked, as Noah lifted up the small, round object. Surprised and a little afraid, Noah almost dropped the coin in his hands that was starting to pulse in a strange, blueish light.

He looked around, to see if there was someone else in the room. "H-hello?!" - The voice remained silent. "I-is someone here?" Again, the coin started to glow in a blue light, as Noah realized that the voice seemed to come from the coin itself!

"Greetings, my dear stranger" The voice sounded a bit cocky and amused this time "It feels good to finally have someone to talk to again. My power was trapped for decades in this ugly box.."

Noah was confused. How could a coin even talk? What was happening? "Who or what are you?" He asked. Again, the voice answered in a quite amused tone "Oh, forgive me my dear. Its not important who I am, but I can offer you a deal that could change your life."

Noah was a bit worried. Whatever this thing was, it was probably locked up in a chest for a good reason. "T-thanks... I usually do not take any offers from strange demon-voices"

The coin suddenly glowed even brighter "Hey! I'm not a demon! I'm the essence of a sphinx. But sure, go on...throw me away if you are not interested in eternal life"

"Wait" Noah answered. "What do you mean with that?" The coin remained silent again "Hey... answer me!!" He rubbed the coin in his hands "Where are you?"

"Weeeell" The voice finally whispered again "You are probably not the right person if you are so much in doubt. To prove you worthy, you need to solve my riddle first! I will only gift you my powers if you are able to find the right answer. Do we have a deal?"

Noah was still a bit unsure about what to do, but on the other hand he knew that an offer like that would probably only come once in a lifetime. "How will this eternal life affect me? Will I still be myself? Can you make me stronger, faster, bigger and all this as well?"

The voice snickered "With my powers, You will be able to form bodies after your own will, yes!" Noah grinned "Then we have a deal. Bring up your riddle!"

In a blink of an eye, the coin lifted itself up and burned in a bright, blue flame. "Alright!" the voice seemed to fill the whole room now "Here it comes: Your finger fits right into it. Some play with it when they are bored. Once you are married, you are stuck with the same one forever. What is it?"

A RING

"Uhm, a ring of course!"

Noah answered, after he had took some time to think about it. "Thats the correct answer!" The voice sounded impressed that Noah was able to solve her riddle that fast.

"You really seem to be worthy to become a Petra... Just let me optimize your body a bit to make sure you can really use your new power." Noah took a few steps back. "Wait, what do you mean with that?... You said my body wouldn't change!"

A quiet snickering filled the room "You have to pay better attention to my words human, I said: My powers are able to create any body you want. To fit a Petra, you will need some more ... female touches..."

"F-female touches?" Noah looked around in the room to see where the voice was coming from "L-like what?" Suddenly, the voice hissed directly into his ear: "Like these tits for example"

He felt a sudden weight on his chest. Noah bended forwards, as if an invisible hand had slapped his back. His jacket fell to the ground, and on his former flat chest, two massive, soft bulges seemed to stress the fabric of his shirt.

A little confused, he pulled his shirt down and revealed a pair of massive, soft breasts dangling in the air in front of him. "Cute, arn't they? I usually like them a bit lewder!" Noah moaned, as the nipples on his breasts seemed to grow into obscene mounds "Yeah, thats better!... Now lets go on from here!"

"Wait... no!" Noah moaned, as he felt his body deforming. His hips pushed out of his trousers as his ass grew bigger "Please, stop!" The skin around his chest started to stretch, somehow it was moving in a weird way! A sudden rush of lust flashed through Noahs body as finally his hips slipped out of his pants and revealed a massive boner in his boxers. In seconds, the fabric of his underwear also ripped away and fell to the ground, revealing Noahs erected cock drooling pre all over the place.

He had no time to worry about his nudeness, since the massive moan had caused the skin on his chest to rip. He carefully moved his hands over his chest, as he discovered a dark, greyish skin that had appeared right beneath what was left of his old skin.

In a weird daze, Noah realized that his cock had already grown back into his crotch. A weird, needy sensation was slowly spreading from between his legs "Yeah.... its great to be a girl, right?!" The voice whispered. Noah nodded slowly, as his hands touched the soft, slimy lips that had replaced his cock. Carefully, Noah pushed one of his fingers between the soft folds and started to explore his new cunt. Every tiny movement send shudders down his spine, which had elongated into a dark tail, as he pushed his finger deeper and deeper inside.

"this... feels... so... goood!..." Noah mumbled, as he felt his lower jaw pushing forwards. The teeth in his mouth grew sharper, as fangs emerged from his gums as well. Finally, his whole face morphed into a reptilian snout that pushed away the old skin of his face.

Every muscle in his back seemed to move, as weird, long spikes grew out of his shoulders. His hairs grew longer and turned from a dark-brown into a bright cyan. Noah tried to keep his balance, as he realized, that his feet had totally changed into the feet of an digitigrade.

Weird images of all kinds of weird creatures and languages rushed through his head. It started to hurt, as he realized he knew – and understood all of them all of a sudden.

“There, my powers are yours human. Whenever you need me, I will be right at your side.” Noah felt something heavy resting in his palm. Curiously, he lifted up his hand and found a silver coin on a chain resting in it.

“I know a place we can be alone for a while and I can teach you everything I know.”

Alternative Ending

"Haha, thats a dirty riddle!" Noah grinned.
He was sure he got the right answer "Its a pussy of course!

The voice sighed. "Correct answer... and you will have an eternity to play with it as my guardian here. Just give me a minute to make your body match your dirty mind!"

"Make slrrp what?!" Noah felt a sudden tightness in his throat that made it harder to speak. Carefully, he touched his face with his hands. His mouth felt different somehow, like it was bloated and swollen. In disbelief, his fingers ran over a slimy, vertical membrane that loosely hung from his face right where his mouth and nose should have been. "Wutf.. pfft Wutf haffening!?" His fingers finally found the soft entrance to his deformed mouth and slipped into a tight canal that once was his throat.

In seconds, Noah felt the bulge in his face turning wet, filling his greedily sucking mouth with thick, smelly liquids that created lewd farts instead of words.

"What do you think about your new mouth? Doesnt it feel great to have a sucking, unwashed pussy right in the face?" Noah wasn't able to answer. A rush of incredible lust flooded his mind, as his fingers pushed deeper inside his swollen opening, creating smacking noises.

"I see you already feel comfortable with your stinking fuckhole. Let's make sure the rest of your body lives up to your disgusting lewdness, too!"

With moans of pleasure, Noah saw his clothes rip. Again, the voice halled through the attic with a triumphant laugh "I only gathered the best parts for my guardians, to make sure they are both strong and potent lovers."

In Horror, Noah saw that not only his clothes had ripped. Massive holes had formed in his human skin, revealing a mixture of leathery reptile skin and insectile carapace below. He tried to speak, but only wet farts escaped his dripping cuntmouth, as long strands of thick efflux dripped onto the floor.

"Haha, a truly intimidating monster you will be!" Noah looked at his hands. His old skin was slowly peeling back like some sort of old glove, as insectile claws ripped free from below. His chest felt heavy and he bended forwards, as Noah finally saw his new massive tits dangling in front of him, covered in thick reptile scales and a leathery, warty skin of a snapper.

His nethers felt numb, as he noticed a long tail slashing behind his body. "Now..." The voice continued "Let's make you a little more interesting for my private pleasures!"

Noah wanted to protest, but his cuntmouth only smacked as he opened it. He felt weird, reptilic mandibles growing out from his face, carefully touching his sensitive hole. The boner between his legs dangled to the left and right, and suddenly, Noah realized that something was happening to his breasts as well! It seemed that the female nipples slowly started to grow longer, developing a sensitive glans and slowly giving birth to testicles!?

"Haha, yeah, I am a dirty mind, too... one cock is not enough... I really can't wait to suck and lick all your naughty openings while you fuck me."

"Such a sexy beast you are! Damn, I hope I will be able to get a body soon, so I can test all your new features!"

In disbelief, Noah watched his other, reptilic hand. His former human skin had completely fallen off and revealed a disgusting hybrid-body "Seems like my studies of snapper-fly chimaeras hasn't gone to waste, right? I used to have a whole harem of creatures like you back then. All of them had been adventurers that answered my riddles in a lewd way"

For one last time, Noah tried to answer, but the reptilic mandibles in his face carefully stimulated the drooling cunt in his face. He felt the cocks on his tits slowly growing stiff, the more his facecunt was touched. His former human cock had turned into a massive, veiny prick that scattered drips of pre on the ground everywhere around him.

This body felt so good, no matter how disgusting it was looking. Carefully, Noah pressed his thick reptile finger between his sloppy face-folds. The soft walls of his facial vulva sucked over the leathery skin, as the claw pushed deeper down his slimy vagina-throat.

"You are such a perfect minion. What would I give to join you right now, dear. I will let you explore your new body for a moment, but after you are done, I can show you how to set up a cuntslime-trap, so we can find a new host for my real powers."
