Before starting this comic, you need to know some details to enjoy your comic as much as possible.

This comic was built for jerk-off-instruction (JOI) lovers, it means there are more talk than normal. You must obey each line, or else this comic won't work. Pay attention to each line, and follow each instructions. This is not a "cum-eating-instruction" (CEI) comic, and this comic won't ask you to hurt yourself.

This comic is also a passive role-play story. When someone looks at the "camera", they are talking to you, as each drawing was made in your point-of-view. You must insert yourself in this comic. If you can do it easily, then you will enjoy the most of that comic.

Rarity was a character chosen on a suggestion poll, and here, she is ported as a 19 yo human girl. Her personification may be different from the original show, and each line is being evaluated and adapted by Equestria Girl's show lovers.

You are a friend that is enjoying summer time with Rarity. Since she is pale, she asks you to put some lotion, but you end up discovering that it's not that kind of lotion she's looking for.

She already know your foot fetish, then she will use it to produce some male lotion for her skin... and her feet.

Relax, and enjoy.
