Gary's Song

In the valley there's a river Runs along a dusty road
Comes from nowhere without warning Takes you back there just as sure Disappearing into mists
And mountain greens of Carolingia

Winding paths in stubby mountains Tired out and lying low Hiding secrets without whispers
And distracting every soul
With waterfalls born in the clouds
That meet the river
When magnificence is spent.

On and on I walked the mill road
Long forgotten by the maps.
Kept beloved by the land,
It held my feet along the hillsides
To the river, down and back
And it seduced me, saying Lover

I stripped off what wasn't me
And I left it in a tree.

And on and on I walked the mill road
Part of nature, clad in mist
And I took all Carolingia
For a lover as I spilled Out on her face;
A waterfall born in the clouds
That met the river
Where the rains had brought it, spent.

Looking Up Down Under?

G'day! Welcome to Undernia!
Libertyville, to be precise. How do you like the view so far?

Libertyville is world-famous for the beauty of its beaches, and its people. Freedom and friendliness are the words we live by, and we're hoping to see your face here. Or at least some part of you.

Right here we have Gary McCottoner, making friends with a local sheila. Struth! Gary's down dodging the toe-freezing Truenorth winter with us, keeping us safe and happy as a life guard.
Mind you, he's not up on that guard tower all the time. There are plenty of other things in Libertyville for a bunny to get on top of, he'll tell you! The Sand Hills, the Pyramid Hotel, the diving boards... Well, we don't want to boast. We'd rather you come on down and do the boasting for us.

So say g'day to Undernia, the pretty bottom of the country.
Plenty of room, and good times to spare that won't cost a bloke an arm and a leg. Maybe just your shirt and pants.
