

AND NOW,
A WORD FROM OUR ARTISTS...

WOULD YOU TRUST THIS MAN WITH A COMMISSION?

DOUG WINGER, POPULARLY KNOWN AS JUSTDOUG,
MAY OR MAY NOT BE ACCEPTING COMMISSIONS.
BEING THAT FURRY STUFF IS GENERALLY DONE FOR FUN, THE THOUGHT OF MONEY... WELL, IT'S NICE.

HOWEVER, IT'S USUALLY HARD WORK, AS HE BELIEVES IN THE OLD-FASHIONED 'VALUE FOR MONEY' PRECEPT LAID DOWN BY OUR DISTANT
ANCESTORS, WHICH TURNS IT INTO WORK.

STILL, HE MIGHT BE CAJOLED OR BRIBED WITH IDEAS (OR MONEY; HE'S NOT A FOOL), BUT FACE IT-WOULD YOU TRUST YOUR DREAMS TO A MAN THAT NOT ONLY TENDS TO GIGGLE WHILE CRANKING OUT BAD ART, BUT HAS A DISCONCERTING HABIT OF DOING ODD THINGS TO THE CHARACTERS HE DOES DRAW? YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED.

IF YOU'RE BRAVE (OR FOOLHARDY) ENOUGH TO TRUST
HIM, CONTACT HIM ONLINE, USUALLY ON THE MUCKS, AND WIDELY KNOWN AS JUSTDOUG (OR PLAIN OLD DOUG ON THE ONES HE'S TOO LAZY TO TYPE ON).

I WAS TOO
NORMAL, ONCE!

Michael Higgs

has been moving about for a bit and while he may not make as many conventions as he used to, he still has a few splendid portfolios available, and might enjoy your feedback on this project

While it's impossible to determine just WHAT Brian O'Connell will draw next, there's a good chance you can get your commissions from him.

He has a wide assortment of prints, and is probably most reliably contacted through the mails.

Send a self-addressed envelope to:

Oh, and send money.

Charles Davies would like some input.

Maybe in the form of commissions (money), Maybe in the form of editorial comments (money) Maybe in the hopes of selling some of his existing prints to an eager plugged-in market. (mo' money)

Allen Fishbeck, known in some hideous permanent records that will follow him for life as Captain Chipmunk lives the life of a typical semi-gruntled postal worker.

Then again, how many disgruntled postal workers have their own armored car?

His characters here are on temporary leave from both their senses AND their traditional stomping grounds, which can be found in MAYHEM COUNTY.

Look for MAYHEM COUNTY CREATIONS wherever AL is selling.

Naturally, if he'll draw for THIS CD, he'll draw for pretty much ANYONE'S money, but depending on mood, schedule, and the next mortgage payment, you might send your submissions to:
