

Queen Passionate – Passion Queen 3

Brainwave Synchronization is used in this recording for deeper levels of trance. Now it really gets good mmmm I have a very special fantasy for you. It's powerless to struggle. your Queen Passionate now has you right where She wants you, and now it's exactly where you want to be, don't you? You did not really think I would let you or her go, did you darling? Oh I have much more sinister plans for you pet. Oh yes... You please Me as you crawl closer and closer to Me. The air gets warmer and warmer and you smell a strange powerful candy scent, a cherry scent as you breathe it in deeply and your will disappears. Your whole world is in My eyes as you breathe in My pheromones, breathing in and out, in and out. You are My slave, My drone and you live to please Me! See the powder in My hand, breathe out completely and take a deep breath in as I blow the powder right in your face! Only I exist to you, nothing else matters, you worship Me, mind, body and soul. My beliefs are your beliefs. you live to serve Me as you kneel before Me. your focus is Me, nothing else matters now. As you see Me sitting upon My throne you kneel and worship before Me gazing up into My seductive entrancing eyes. you love your Queen and will do anything for Me now won't you? Say Yes my Queen and each time you say it you fall deeper and deeper under My passionate hypnotic control. Say yes My queen. Nothing else is important anymore except, Yes my queen as you crawl to My feet and remove My shoes one after the other. Breathe in the scent of My pheromones. Stroke the tops of My Dominant feet, place your face between my feet, breathe in My sexual scent... breathe in and out, in and out, that's it kiss and worship at My feet like the slave that you are. I slide My toes into your mouth and you suck on them, your mind shrinking, becoming smaller and smaller to the size of a pin prick, a pin prick of light that now goes out! you are a slave, a mindless drone, you exist to serve and obey. Stare at my breasts and lower your face between My thighs as I lift My dress and place it over your head, breathe in the scent of your Queen, your Goddess as you worship Me and only Me. you must always obey your Queen now. your reality has become My canvas. Muahahahaha!!!!
