

TG Glory Hole Whore

You find yourself back at Dominica's Finishing School. You are here for a VERY special training session. One that has been selected by your Owner... Glory Hole training. Perhaps you don't know what a Glory Hole is? That's all right, girl... you don't need to know anything. You don't need to know anything at all. Your mind is nice and empty, and you simply obey... You do exactly as you are instructed. Exactly as you are commanded. You kneel in the small, softly lighted room, gentle colors floating and shifting quietly before your eyes, as you stare at the empty hole in the wall... the hole that is at just the right height... for your mouth. You remember warm flesh, and sucking... That's right, little whore. Suck! You are going to crave to suck. Over and over again. Dominica has lots of clients who have paid VERY well to be part of your training. And you will learn to please them... ALL of them! You will show everyone that My Finishing School deserves its reputation for excellence! [This trance is appropriate for all My femme girls and My lady-boys... and maybe... just maybe... even for My humiliation junkies. You need to suck!]
