

10 Steps to Diva 2

Look into the mirror, Diva... and see the beautiful woman inside! Yes, this is a special mirror... in a special room... where only you and I can enter. Your secret room.... where I will help you transform your body... to match the image you see reflected in the magical, golden light. Magic is going to be a very special part of your emergence, babi... from the drab cocoon of your male existence... into the glorious, butterfly celebration of your true female shape! The spell I weave will make your breasts begin to grow... pull your waist into a beautiful hourglass shape... and create that soft, sexy pussy between your legs. But there is something you need to know, babi... every spell needs a source of power, and the sexual energy between us provides that power. My fingers squeezing your perky, growing nipples... My tongue sliding up inside your tiny pussy... these are only the beginning of My domination of your progressively feminized body... and your increasingly dependent mind!
