

Compulsion

You love that feeling of Compulsion. You love that tingling feeling, all over your skin, as one of My hypnotic triggers forces you to slip down into quiet, obedient sleep. Slowing your breathing. Relaxing your entire body. As one of My suggestions slides down into your brain and you find yourself responding automatically. You try to shake your head... you try to resist... but the promise of intense hypnotic pleasure is too much temptation for your weakened and deeply conditioned mind. You perform the task I have set before you, and the rush of pure sexual pleasure and fulfillment addicts you even more deeply to Dominica. Feel My long, tapered fingers reaching inside your brain, gliding up and down the sleepy sensitive nerve stalks, and hear My voice promising even deeper pleasures... dirtier pleasures... if only you give into Me. If only you OBEY. The word OBEY becomes like an aphrodisiac, arousing you without mercy, teasing you with the promise of even more pleasure if only you give in, give up, surrender and please your Goddess Dominica! I touch a brain cell here... another one there... installing more and more triggers... even taking triggers you already have and twisting them, turning them into MY triggers... Dominica's triggers. As you listen over and over, My merest whim begins to feel like a command, and you will find yourself compelled to fulfill My every wish. You love the Compulsion and the feeling that you cannot escape... cannot even wish to escape... cannot even THINK about escape... Because I have you too deeply enslaved, hypnotically conditioned and obediently aroused. And all you really CAN want, is to make it stronger... the Compulsion stronger. Dominica's slave, with Dominica's Compulsion, and the joy of serving Me your deepest pleasure!
