

Cerebral Control 1

The Doctor has the results of your exam back, and the results are not good. That brain has to come out. Surgery has never been this fun or this pleasurable. I make sure that you brain is properly cared for, and oh properly adjusted to My wishes before its returned to you... However, in the mean time enjoy the weightless experience of not thinking about ANYTHING for a while. That's right total blank nothingness where I make all the decisions and care for My ever compliant and horny patient Mmmmmm
