

Feminine Breeder 2

Look up at the huge, spinning crystal... high in the ceiling... and gaze into the soft, green light. All My pretty little Breeder girls, in a big room together... side by side in a room filled with hammocks. Gently swaying back and forth... caressing your tummies, and singing to your babies, yet to be born. Yes, you joined a Cult when you became My Breeder slave... and you're just one of My dozens of little Lesbian housewives. I keep you all cooking, cleaning... scrubbing floors and doing laundry... Always in a deep, hypnotic daze... and always so VERY horny! You can't seem to keep your hands off yourselves... or each other... Rubbing your swollen pussies... squeezing each other's breasts till the milk starts to squirt out of your big, dark nipples... Your body keeps changing, getting heavier, feeling so awkward... And your cravings for strange foods, your mood swings, and your deepening pregnancy amnesia... they all make you feel like you're going just a little bit crazy! Maybe if I fill your stretchy pussy with a big strap-on dildo, you will feel better. Maybe if I make you lick MY pussy, you will feel more awake. Maybe if I let you CUM... you be able to remember things again! Look up at the ceiling... and sing to your baby, Breeder. And feel your mind sink back down into a haze of mindless, pregnant obedience!
