

House of Mirrors

It seems that every carnival has a House of Mirrors — but nobody has one quite like Mine. Walk into My maze of mirrors and glass panels. The dim light from above makes it even harder to find your way through the twisting little passages. You feel like you've been here before — and maybe you have. Maybe that's the secret to finding your way out, if you can remember what you did last time! This is a powerful recording that combines images within images and a deep sexual fixation on Me, your Mistress Dominica. You will never see mirrors in the same way again! This MP3 is heavily treated with BINAURAL beat effects for the deepest trance state possible.
