

Hypnotic Feet

Down on the floor, slave! Down on your knees... and worship Dominica's Hypnotic Feet... My Voice echoes in your increasingly weakened brain... Drawing away all resistance from your mind... from your body... Making you so relaxed, you won't even be able to kneel... You'll just sink down... down... down... Flat on the floor and licking the soles of My feet... sucking My toes... Lying on your back... with My feet on your face... Your senses overwhelmed by the taste of My skin... the aroma of My toes... the graceful perfection of My high arches... Maybe I'll slide the end of one foot in your mouth... while I stroke your crotch with the other... Up and down... squeezing and caressing... While I enslave you to My feet, more and more deeply with each passing minute. I'm going to build a cage around your mind... but it's a cage you're going to LOVE... because you're going to be Dominica's foot slave... forever!
