

Jessica Vanished

Even deeper inside your mind, Jessica... there is a place BELOW the level of thought... A place where, if I train you, your mind and body will obey Me automatically. You will be completely Mine. A simple command from Me... even a whim... and My Words will become your desires, Jessica. My suggestions will become your reality. And you will be unable to resist, when I want to change you... from a boy... to a girl... to a different girl... back to a boy... or to a little puppy dog... You will not fight Me, Jessica... because you won't be able to. My will is your will. This what you want, isn't it Jessica? My will is your will. This IS what you want. Because you want what I want. You want what I want. Your mind, open to Dominica... at its very deepest level. But don't worry, babi... don't worry... You are My property... and I protect My property! I will open your mind completely... and I will also install a deeper, more powerful protection in your mind... So nobody can touch you there, deep inside your mind, without My permission. Dominica's controlled, little Jessica slave... Your brain is My toy... and Mine alone!
