

Kidnapped 2 – Amnesia

Are you ready to be Kidnapped again? The telephone call may come at any time. The text message. My Voice at the other end. My fingers tapping the keys. Kidnapped. The word makes you quiver. Your breathing grows faster. You TRY to remember. What HAPPENED last time? But a slow wave of confusion glides across your mind. Making you sleepy. Making you feel numb for a moment. You close your eyes, trying to clear your head, and take a deep breath. But I don't ALLOW you to remember anymore. You have hypnotic AMNESIA, slave boy. And you're going to find yourself giving in to the warm, dizzy feeling of the endorphins flooding your brain... as you try to recall My subtle hypnotic manipulations of your mind, your desires, and your memories. You WILL obey My commands and present yourself at your front door, ready to be taken away again to My mansion of domination and control. And when I get you there, I am going to delete, remove and rearrange your thoughts to suit Myself. I am MzDominica, your Mistress and your Owner... and I am going to make your brain SO empty, babi... you're NEVER going to want to leave!
