

Queen Passionate – Passion Hive 1

Slave drone... Welcome, make yourself comfortable, recline, lay back, relax, and listen to Me. There exists a windowless room with walls the color of sunset. Set within its center lays a pedestal bed, whose lush scarlet pillows climb as high as your chest. The air itself is gold and thick, warm and bathed with a mist of amber hues. It tingles with perfumes to which you are as not yet aware. To this setting, I supply the heat, the scents, and the warm lighting. I am the oiled figure lying across the pillows and propped upon my elbows looking at you, my hair in a ponytail, ringlets of blond falling over my face, the twin curves of my oiled and perfect legs shine, they glisten all the way to my feet held aloft and swaying behind me. What you need to know is that this place truly exists, lay back and relax, listen closely, we are not in that room yet; you have to earn the right to enter that chamber. It is not like I am going to hypnotize you or anything, not like I am going to cast a spell over you. No, Why would I want to hypnotize you and enslave you turning you into my worshipping drone? The drone bee unable to resist the queens commands, doing anything that she commands. You must learn to trust Me, trust me completely. Trust in Me. Listen very closely to every little sound that I make. You are drawn to Me, stimulated by me and connected to me. Every sound I make soothes and caresses you now. You can trust Me increasingly. Relax in the tones of My voice, trust, and be calm. Feel yourself being seduced by Me as a soft powerful sleepy sensation begins to overtake you. Waves of sleep passing through your mind from the top effortlessly down releasing arousal and peaceful sleepiness. It feels so good, this magical wave of pleasure that travels the length of your body. Your body is unable to generate movement at all now. As it grows heavier and heavier with each of My passionate words. Your mind is controlled and falling deeper. Falling deeper and deeper now, Sleepier and sleepier now, deeper and heavier for Me. As I program you and as I brainwash you to My liking. Your brain locked in my spell. The command to obey is more potent than any desire that you have ever had. Your entire brain focuses on me. Arousal, submission, and defiant obsession consume your very soul. Sleep deeply now for Me. See only My eyes now, my deep blue eyes. You need My instructions, My orders, and My commands because I am the Queen, you are the slave drone and I am the Queen. So much more awaits you in My hive, so much more pleasure, you are a drone and you need to enter the hive with Me, I will be waiting for you, My slave drone.
