

Queen Passionate – Passion Hive 2

Every bee in the hive exists to please The Queen. She releases pheromones; chemicals that influence behavior and no bee can resist that influence. In essence the Queen bee controls their minds, and for that reason... they love Her, they worship Her, they would do anything for Her. I think the comparison fits rather nicely don't you slave drone? Breathe in My female scent, the perfume, sex, wet, steamy and hot, a strong musky scent, so deeply hypnotic. You are getting very woozy now darling. Do you find My voice very, very entrancing, you find yourself attracted to it, drawn to it, pulled to it, yes of course you do. I can think of people as bees, they work, they build, they live together, and they communicate. Humans are like bees to me and I am their queen. I can see it now. Stare at the 100,000 pairs of spiraling hypnosis eyes. Absorb the idea of 1,000,000 minds all under My control. Enslaving them all one by one, then taking people into groups, kidnapping those who resist and brainwashing them. Perhaps I will go on TV and enslave millions of minds all at the same time. I place you here in my thoughts, I summon you to my hive and send the other bees away. All you have to do is listen to Me. Deeply hypnotized, unable to resist Me, the sound of my voice is hypnotizing you slave drone. You will see what I want you so see, what I tell you to see, and smell what I give you to smell, be what I want you to be. You stand in My royal palace of My hive, you stand in a foggy dense blinding vapor in a golden chamber, there are no windows. This chamber is sealed and all you see is vapor, but you can hear and hearing me is so much. Listen to me listen to my voice, breathe, relax take your time, look to the floor it is a gold floor with a red carpet. The path leads to a golden pair of steps. Look up into the vapor as it clears to my perfect face. You see my beautiful perfect face just a few yards away from you. My eyes are electric to you as if they glow. Your gaze will remain here in my eyes. See how they begin to sparkle like spinning golden crystals, the light flashes out at you fascinating you, watch the colors in my eyes as they change, ever changing as they seize your gaze pulling your eyes into mine, being sucked into my deep, deep pupils. Colors melt and change, and swirl pulling you ever deeper into my eyes, you could gaze forever watching how they sparkle and swirl, pulling you closer and closer to Me.
