In My continuing efforts to make you a better slave, I started out with “Token of Obedience,” programming you to obey your Mistress without will, without hesitation, without question. In this trance, I take the next step, focusing your desires on your Mistress to the exclusion of all else. Again, every desire for ANYTHING other than your Mistress will be sucked into a token. And again, it will be your wristwatch. When you ask Me to take your desire, and I accept it, your only remaining desire will be for Me. And, with all those other desires out of the way, your desire for Me will grow, until it consumes you completely. As with “Token of Obedience,” you will be able to initiate this transfer with ANY woman you consider to be your Mistress. You will find yourself becoming intensely focused on Her, and aroused by Her — by everything about Her.
