

Queen Passionate – Token of Obedience

This trance can be summed up in two words: Total Obedience. I will swiftly ensnare your mind, and extract your willpower, until it all belongs to Me. You will have no desire but to obey Me, disobedience will not even occur to you anymore. And you will initiate it yourself no less; your willpower will be sucked into a token, your wristwatch. When you ask Me to take it, and I accept it, your willpower will be transferred to Me. You will be unable to act at all without My command, and you will love every sexy moment of it. An added feature is that you will be able to initiate this transfer with ANY woman you consider to be your Mistress, even if She is not a hypnotist. This program should be experienced in total darkness with HEADPHONES. Binaural Beats were used in approx. 60% of the MP3 the rest of it is clear unfiltered voice. A warning to Mistresses: Handle with care, as your sub will obey all commands without even the ability to question. A warning to submissives: While the effectiveness of any hypnosis MP3 can vary from person to person if you are familiar with being hypnotized this should have a profound effect on the majority of you. Therefore, take special care to whom you give your trigger words. Ensure it is someone you can trust and will not harm you.
