

Queen Passionate – Token of Remembrance

You are becoming a better and better slave, with every one of My recordings you hear... with every time you listen. In “Token of Obedience,” I programmed you to obey your Mistress, automatically, helplessly. In “Token of Desire,” I swept aside all desires for anything other than your Mistress, and let your desire for Her grow and consume you. You have begun to realize there’s no turning back. No holding back. Your desire to be the perfect slave for your Mistress is beginning to overwhelm you. And now... I will focus your entire mind on your Mistress — because you will not be able to remember anything else. Your ability to remember ANYTHING other than your Mistress will be sucked into a token — your wristwatch. When you ask Me to take your memories, and I accept them, your only remaining memories will be of Me. And with all those other memories out of the way, your every thought will focus upon Me as the center of your entire world. As with my other “Token” trances, you will be able to initiate this transfer with ANY woman you consider to be your Mistress. You will find yourself entirely focused on Her, because only She exists in your mind, your universe.
