

Queen Passionates Wet Dream 1

You are very good at following instructions; you are a good listener as you follow my instructions perfectly. Listen to Me now. Feel the smooth narcotic effect of My voice, it feels like vapor rising into your mind or wavy fumes that come up from nowhere. My voice filling your mind, making you dizzy, your mind is an engine, a smooth running motor and your body is the vehicle, allowing my words to slip you out of gear, your mind idles and slows down as you glide to a slow stop. Sink into the calm of my voice, calm like deep ocean currents, warm waters of the tropics. You float in the warm tropical air as you glide to a standstill, lying on the deck of a tropical boat, lying on a cushioned bench, head resting on the pillow as you relax and grow sleepier. Feel the sway of the yacht now as you dream and float, your engine sleeping in the late dusk. I am luring your brain into harmony with my voice. My words entrance you, deeply, deeper than ever before. You have drifted so far out, so far away on my voice. Your mind slips away, drifts away, entranced into sleep and drifting away. Massive clouds gather on the horizon. Lightning and thunder in your vision. Your mind grows passive as I lock you into trance. See the crystal throwing out light into your eyes. I am enslaving you as you lie there on the pillow gazing up into My crystal. Now you smell the perfume of cherry and sex. The twinkling beams of light so bright that all you see are glittering lights. Listen closely to me as your mind becomes passive as it goes under into a deep trance. You stare at the crystal I am holding above you, look into the crystal and see the starlight within. Feel your head supported on My naked thighs. See Me grinning at you. As I open My eyes wider for you now. Stare and obey. Feel the power behind My eyes as they flash with a burst of pure white light, hypnotizing you so deeply. Fall even deeper now. Feel My voice, flooding and saturating your brain now. My words and My voice take over. Breathe deeply, feel your sex stirring into life, as you get harder, you fall harder. Making you want Me more than anyone else. Bound to Me, bound to My words. Gone, lost in Me totally. Struggle now as I take you against your will, your mind cannot refuse Me, there is nothing you can do except fall harder and deeper, lost in Me as I massage your temples. Massaging your will away slowly as My spell has taken you. Surrender to My slavery now. Surrender to slavery now. This boat will take us wherever I want to go and you are trapped here with Me, under Me, nowhere to go. You have no idea where I am taking you but you have surrendered to Me now and you will call Me Master whenever I want you To. As you follow Me now into the boats cabin and our journey continues as I deepen my hold on you, my willing and perfect little slave, my every word putting you deeper and deeper under my spell. This is just the beginning of My erotic hypnotic seduction of you pet.
