

Realm Pt 1 – The Village

Just on the other side of your consciousness... is a special place. A secret place. Separated from the rest of the world — and yet, so easy for you to simply slip away and visit, at any time. Just by thinking about it. A place of Mistresses and slaves, of whips and hot sex, of horny men... and even hornier women. A little farm community, high up in the mountains, run by beautiful, powerful Women. Where male and female slaves serve, helplessly controlled by hypnosis, by brainwashing, by relentless conditioning of their minds and bodies. I am going to introduce you to this world, and your role in it. You will find yourself falling into this seductive little vacation spot, just inside your own head, where will want to return again and again. And there you will become My slave — collared, and branded — your only purpose, to serve Me. If you disobey, the whip shall be your punishment! But if you please Me, slave... I may just allow you to partake of the sexual delights that only I can offer!
