

Realm Pt 6 – slave Hunt

Sometimes slaves run away. Confronted with the intensity of their own desires, some of them can't handle it, and try to escape. Others find themselves in My brainwashing room, feeling like they are going crazy (they ARE), and bolt out of there as soon as they get a chance. They don't get far. I hunt them down. In this little adventure, I am the hunter — and you are My prey. When I hunt down My runaways, sometimes I catch them — and sometimes I don't. But they always come back. Because once you have resided in Dominica's Realm for even a short time, it will be forever in your mind. And you will come back, craving a new adventure! I have employed some sound manipulations and experimented with small periods of silence to facilitate a deeper more intense hypnotic experience. you cant resist it you know you want Me to hunt you down through the woods to catch you and make you Mine FOREVER...
