

Rubber Programmer 2

Take a DEEP breath, rubber slave. Can you smell it? The sharp, chemical scent of the liquid latex. And maybe... maybe something else mixed in... The aroma of My special rubber Mind Control drug, in the thick, rubber anesthesia mask. Taking you down, pulling your mind down, dragging you into deep, sleepy rubber obedience. Where your mind is soft... pliable... and stretchy... Where I can do anything... and you can do nothing to resist. You're going to find it hard to remember much of this recording... except your CRAVING for My latex-clad body, in black, skin-tight rubber... and My increasingly powerful control over your weak and eager mind. But that's okay, babi... because that's all I'm going to ALLOW you to remember... and you're going to find that you deeply crave to OBEY My every command!
