

The Cell 2

This is a very intense recording, bombarding you with information, employing repetition, adding new hypnotic triggers, and, of course including some wonderful seduction: I'm going to enter into your brain, and with great fervor, I will take control of it and all its contents. The old you will be no more, as I will remove all former thoughts and make you over. Turning back the hands of time you will now see yourself as a 19 year old slave each time you look into the mirror. The tight irremovable collar I have placed around your neck is always there to remind you who owns you... Resistance is changed into pure OBEDIENCE as I change so much about you you no longer really know who you are... My seductive voice slips over your pliable mind. You will never see yourself the same again as you now find that you live to serve DOMINICA all day everyday!!! Never wish to be 19 again LIVE it under My passionate extreme utter control of your mind the same mind you once controlled...
