

Hey! Thanks for downloading this compilation.

I've included any worthwhile MLP-related music I've made over the past three years in this album, released and unreleased. I didn't want to leave listeners completely in the dark as I move on from this music, so this is my "parting gift" so to speak.

I took some time to remaster Rainboom Connection as the original was rushed and absolutely terrible. (however I've included the original master just in case you want it for whatever reason) Nothing changed composition-wise, but a huge load of mixing changes were made. I was also able to get a proper instrumental for it as a byproduct. I know that's been requested a few times, so I'm glad I can finally provide it.

I've also included two unreleased songs. They'll never be finished, so I put both of them on here in their most current form.. Please Don't Hate Me had always been an instrumental that could never find it's vocal match. I sampled vocals from three different episodes but was never happy with any of them. Dream for Me was the second iteration of a Luna song, but the drive was lost while working on it and I never added anything else since.

You're free to use these songs in videos and whatnot, but make sure to give proper credit to Become as that was a collaboration with Metajoker. As far as the rest of the songs go, credit is appreciated, but not necessary. IDGAF

Thanks so much for listening. Whether or not you're looking forward to my new music, I hope you enjoy all the same.
